

DB Sales expands office space To support growing business

GARDEN GROVE, CA, September 3, 2012 — On Monday DB Sales announced that it has added 3,000 square feet of office space in its Garden Grove office. The company has been growing steadily since its acquisition by Steve Mertz in 2010, with a concentrated focus on high efficiency solutions and top quality sales reps.

DB Sales saw its sales more than double last year, and expects better results in 2012. DB Sales has developed a high expertise in advising and providing its customers with high efficiency heating and cooling systems that meet stringent environmental guidelines, including Ultra Low NOx (nitrous oxide) systems and ultra high efficiency chiller systems.

“We are meeting the marketplaces’ demands are by teaming with manufacturers who are focused on creating high efficiency solutions. We’ve also added more expert technicians and sales support to our team.” said owner of the company Steve Mertz.
